Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.
2. Claims 1-11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
3. Claim 1 recites the limitation "the receiver portal's own clock" in lines 14-15, and claim 13 recites the limitation "the absolute value of a reference clock" in lines 1-2 on page 5. Claims 2-11 depend on claim 1, therefore, claims 2-11 are rejected for the same reason that claim 1 is rejected. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claim 12 is allowed over prior art.
2. Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
3. Claims 2-11 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for indicating allowable subject matter: Although the combined prior art, Martinez Garcia et al, Barrett, James et al, discloses synchronizing data in a wireless system, wherein the architecture includes cyclic counters, control circuits, synchronization with internal/external references, synchronizing bus bridges associated with system clock, first/second bus coupled to a wireless network, plurality portals, they fail to teach/suggest cycle server portal whose own clock is a reference for other portals, the frame being defined with regards to each portal's own internal clock, the synchronization signal being achieved via insertion of a control window, detecting via each portal the control window of other portals, periodic transmission to wireless network of a control window serving as time reference for other apparatuses connected to the wireless network.
